

Spring 2020 Workshop Series

A workshop series open to ALL families and professionals who support individuals on the spectrum.

Free and open to the public. | No registration needed for families.
If you need childcare or language translation services, please let us know!

Wed., March 18, 2020
5:30PM – 7:30PM

Communication: The Basic Know-Hows for Families

Speech-language therapy strategies for families with children on the spectrum.

Jennifer Moore
M.A., CCC-SLP.

Location:

Falls of Schuylkill Library
3501 Midvale Ave
Philadelphia, PA 19129

Wed., April 15, 2020
5:30PM – 7:30PM

How to Use Sensory and Behavior Strategies to Help Your Child

What's the difference between Sensory and Behavior and what can you do?

Beth Konde/ OTR/L

Location:

Fumo Library
2437 S Broad St
Philadelphia, PA 19148

Wed., May 20, 2020
5:30PM – 7:30PM

What is ABA?

Learn more about Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA), an evidence-based treatment approach.

Dr. Jessica Woods
Ph.D., BCBA-D

Location:

Katharine Drexel Library
11099 Knights Rd,
Philadelphia, PA 19154

Wed., June 17, 2020
4:30PM – 6:30PM

Toilet Training for Children on the Spectrum and other Developmental Differences

Toilet train your child over the summer (even for children who are non-verbal!)

Icylee Basketbill
Family Consultant

Location:

Lillian Marrero Library
601 W Lehigh Ave
Philadelphia, PA 19133

Participating in this training is voluntary and Elwyn is not responsible for any of the content presented

- Childcare and language translation services are available for all trainings, please register at least 1 month before each training so we know your kids are coming!: 215-571-3152
- All trainings are held at a Free Library Branch throughout Philadelphia.
- Act 48 credits are available. Sign up in advance here: www.solutionwhere.com/elwyn You can also register in person, make sure to bring your Professional ID#.