

Spring 2022 VIRTUAL Workshop Series

A workshop series open to ALL families and professionals who support individuals on the Spectrum.

Free and open to the public. | REGISTER HERE. If you need language translation services, please let us know by May 25th!!

Wed., June 22, 2022 9:30AM - 11:00AM

Communication: The Basic Know-Hows for Families

Speech-language therapy strategies for families with children on the Spectrum.

Jennifer Moore, M.A., CCC-SLP.

Wed., June 22, 2022 12:00PM - 2:00PM

Toilet Training for Children on the Spectrum and other Developmental Differences

Toilet train your child over the summer (even for children who are non-verbal!)

Icylee Basketbill, Family Consultant

Wed., June 22, 2022 3PM - 4:30PM

How to Use Sensory and Behavior Strategies to Help Your Child

What's the difference between Sensory and Behavior and what can you do?

Beth Konde MS, OTR/L

Act 48 credits are available.

Sign up in advance HERE.

Act 48 credits are available.

Sign up in advance HERE.

Act 48 credits are available.

Sign up in advance HERE.

Participating in this training is voluntary and Elwyn is not responsible for any of the content presented

- Language translation services are available for all trainings. Please register by May 25th, 2022.
- All trainings will be held virtually via Zoom.

PLEASE CHECK WWW.PHILLYAUTISMPROJECT.ORG FOR OTHER FREE TRAININGS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

www.phillyautismproject.org

QUESTIONS? CALL OR EMAIL PHILADELPHIA AUTISM PROJECT:

phillyap@drexel.edu